

SUMMARY

A law student with First-Class Honors from King Saud University. I possess a strong academic background focusing on in-depth understanding of various branches of law, excellent analytical skills, and experience in legal research. I am seeking an internship opportunity to enhance my practical legal knowledge and collaborate closely with professionals in the field. I am a fast learner, work effectively in teams, and I am eager to apply my legal knowledge in a professional environment that offers opportunities for growth and development.
