PROFILE

A law student in final year with a strong academic background and practical experience in legal research and writing, I am eager to apply my knowledge and skills in a dynamic legal environment. Throughout my studies, I have developed a keen understanding of various legal principles and procedures, complemented by hands on simple practical experience is a summer internship in a law office. I am seeking an internship opportunity where I can further hone my skills, contribute to meaningful legal work, and gain invaluable insights into the practice of law.
