Al Salam Alikom;

Cooperative and field training programs are a fundamental pillar in preparing university students for the labor market. These programs represent one of the fruitful and constructive aspects of cooperation between academic institutions and other governmental and private sectors to serve our beloved country. In our keenness to provide distinguished training institutions for our students in the College of Applied Computer Science at King Saud University, we hope that you will kindly accept the training of the student whose data is mentioned, starting from 01/05/2025 AD for a period of 27 weeks.

We also hope that you will kindly send your kind response to the e-mail cacstraining@ksu.edu.sa within a week from this date.
